ABOUT THE MAXIM CUP KL

Malaysia's premier international youth football tournament since 2016, now rebranded as the Subway Maxim Cup

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Started in 2016, the Subway Maxim Cup KL (previously known as the KL Cup) is a 7-a-side international youth football tournament held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Targetted at competitive junior teams from across the region, the cup aims to improve the opportunities for inter-club football in Southeast Asia.

In its 10-year history the Maxim Cup KL has hosted teams in over 15 different age groups, welcoming academies from 14 different countries across Asia-Pacific and Africa.

MAXIM CUP KL IN 2026

Open to teams in 14 age-groups (Boys U6, U7, U8, U9, U10, U11, U12, U13, U14, U16 and U18, and Girls U12, U14 and U16), the tournament will take place across multiple venues in Malaysia's Klang Valley. All venues will provide high quality artificial turf pitches and are within 40 minutes of KL city centre.

The tournament promises two days of exciting football action at some of the region's leading football centres.
